

Independent Reporter
Nov. 23, 1911 P. 1

NORRIDGEWOCK FORMS A FIRE COMPANY

At a Meeting of Citizens Monday
Evening—Officers Elected.

On Saturday and Monday evenings the citizens met to form a fire company and the following are a list of members: William Brackett, W. F. Brown, W. G. Everett, Carrol Staples, William Soule, Scott Rogers, Adelbert Adams, Chester Sawyer, Benjamin Smith, E. E. Whiting, Arthur Rogers, Jay M. Pierce, Charles Wade, Henry Hussey, Ernest Gilman, Roy Cunliff, Irving Tibbetts, Oscar Lockwood, Miles Dickerson, Charles Trench, Albert Blaisdell, Roy Kelley, Guy Emmons, Almon Blaisdell, Daniel Mc-Niel, Ed. Lessor, Harry Staples, Tracey Stevens, Harold Bruce, Ernest Kelley, Maurice Stevens, Olen Taylor, Wallace Witham, H. D. Burgess. Officers were chosen as follows: William Brackett, chief; Carrol Staples, assistant chief; W. G. Everett, second assistant chief; W. F. Brown, engineer; H. D. Burgess, secretary and treasurer; C. P. Sawyer, captain of the hose company; William Soule, lieutenant of the Hose company; Roy Cunliff, captain of the hook and ladder company; Olen Taylor, lieutenant of hook and ladder company; E. E. Whiting and Miles Dickerson were elected axemen. A draft of a constitution and by-laws was read and referred to a special committee consisting of William Brackett, W. F. Brown and Carrol Staples, for revision. The meeting was adjourned to the first Thursday in December which is the 7th, when it will meet again in the Band hall. The members of the band having very kindly offered it to the firemen for their use on these occasions.